

Congregation B'nai Israel and Mosaic Law Congregation Present the 2010 Scholar-in-Residence Weekend January 22 – 24, 2010

Rabbi Naomi Levy: “Talking to God”

We want to thank the generosity of the Sacramento Jewish Federation and the Shirley Seave Fund as premier Sponsors for this weekend.

Rabbi Naomi Levy is a unique and passionate voice in the contemporary Jewish world. She has been involved in drawing hundreds of disaffected Jews back to a Judaism that is soulful, committed to social justice, meaningful, relevant and fun. The Jewish Forward just listed Rabbi Levy as one of the 50 most influential Jewish leaders in the nation.

She was in the first class of women to enter the Jewish Theological Seminary’s rabbinical school and was the first female Conservative rabbi to head a pulpit on the West Coast. Rabbi Levy left her pulpit to begin work on her book, To Begin Again, which became a national bestseller. Rabbi Levy’s latest book, Talking to God, teaches how reclaiming personal prayer can transform our lives. She has appeared on NBC’s Today Show, Oprah, and has been featured in Parade, Redbook, Self, many other publications.

All events are open to the entire community, regardless of affiliation. The weekend includes the following events:
